The Synteras Difference

From running complex network operation centers across the globe to designing and supporting some of our nation's most critical enterprise networks, Synteras is dedicated to delivering industry leading, best value services to enable IT dominance across the Army, DoD and federal agencies — at home and abroad. Our relentless pursuit of quality, uncompromising security and an absolute commitment to achieve superior mission outcomes for each of our customers — that's the Synteras difference.

A certified Alaska Native Corporation (ANC) and Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB), Synteras is a wholly owned subsidiary of Akima, LLC. Our association with our parent company, Akima, enables us to receive their support for common administrative services and achieve successful performance on programs of any size. As an ANC, our 14,000 native Iñupiat Alaskan shareholders are the sole beneficiaries of the profits generated by the Akima family of companies.
